

Country Faith Celebrates 35 Years!

We're excited to announce a meaningful milestone in WTGN history: March 2020 marks 35 years of broadcasting for Country Faith with Scott Young. Country Faith airs on Saturday mornings at 7, and Sunday evenings at 5:30, and features the best in Southern Gospel music.

Country Faith debuted on March 2nd, 1985. At that time, Ronald Reagan was President, a gallon of gas averaged $1.20, and the Singing Americans had the number one Southern Gospel song with "I Bowed on my Knees & Cried Holy." Other familiar names on the charts were The Cathedrals, The McKameys, and the Gold City Quartet.

Over the years, the top musical groups and songs have changed, but one thing has remained constant—WTGN General Manager Scott Young has hosted Country Faith from the beginning. Scott considers hosting the program to be one of the many great privileges that he's had since he joined the WTGN family in October 1978.

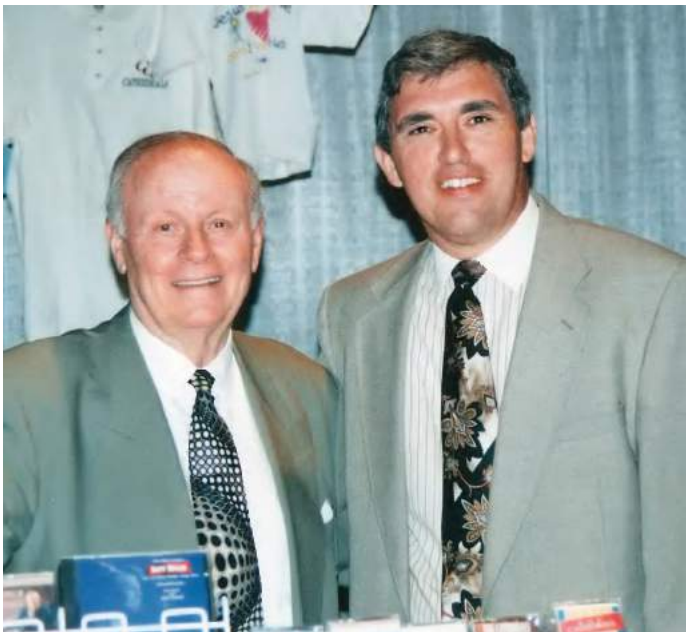

WTGN would like to thank the listeners of Country Faith for their dedicated support over the past 35 years. Also, thank you to the Southern Gospel groups that have produced such excellent music that glorifies the Lord. We look forward to seeing how the Lord uses Country Faith in the years to come.

Scott has been blessed to work with Ernie Haase for local concerts for over 20 years.

Scott has enjoyed meeting and getting to know some of Southern Gospel's best, including the late Glen Payne of The Cathedrals.

What A Day! On behalf of everyone at WTGN Radio, thank you to all who joined us at Cable Road Alliance Church on January 31st for the Legacy Five Concert. We had a great time honoring the Lord.

A special thank you to Cable Road Alliance for all that they did to make the evening a huge blessing to all in attendance. The atmosphere was welcoming, and all who served from Cable Road Alliance were gracious and kind. The Cheryl's cookies and Bigby coffee added a special touch to the evening.

We pray God's continued blessing on Legacy Five, Cable Road Alliance Church, and all WTGN listeners.
