

Note:

Due to the recent Coronavirus outbreak, we're sad to report that our bus trip to The Pacific Garden Mission will no longer be taking place. Also, the 19th Annual Gospel Expo has been cancelled. Once we're able, we'll begin to accept donations of Christian literature for Mission Cry, but for now we ask that you refrain from dropping those off at the station. We're so thankful that we serve a God who is always there for us. As Psalm 46:1 says, "God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble."

Welcome, Libby!

A message from WTGN Office Assistant Libby Oswald:

Greetings, friends!

I'm so excited to be on staff here at WTGN Radio!

My husband Darrick and I will celebrate 7 years of marriage in June and we have two beautiful daughters, Ellie and Hallie. We reside in my hometown of Columbus Grove and are active in Lima Community Church, participating in a small group and serving in the preschool ministry.

Before coming to WTGN, I was a Medical Assistant at an OB/GYN office in Bluffton. And before that, I served as the Campus Life director at Arlington High School with Youth for Christ of Northwest Ohio for five years.

My husband and I enjoy spending our free time with our precious little girls, our family and friends, and being outside when the weather is nice!

I'm so thankful for the opportunity to join the ministry here at WTGN and hope that you will stop in some time and introduce yourself!

Blessings to you!

- Libby
